One of the things I like best about school is my art class. We have a great teacher named Mrs. Hilbert. She is a wonderful artist. I love to watch her draw and paint. She taught us how to mix paint to make just the right colors for our paintings. She plays good music while we draw and paint. We draw and paint almost everyday in class. Some days we look at pictures of other artists. It is interesting to do this. It helps me to think of things that I want to paint or draw. We have an art exhibit in May this year. Our work will be in one of the banks in our town. We are inviting people from the community to our exhibit. Our parents are invited to go with us. I have three paintings I am working on now. I hope one of them will be chosen to be in the exhibit. I like having a goal to work toward.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

- What is one of the favorite classes of this student?
 - math
 - reading
 - art
 - music
- The author describes Mrs. Hilbert as a _____.
 - nice lady
 - wonderful artist
 - sweet person
 - beautiful person
- What did Mrs. Hilbert teach the class to do?
 - bake chocolate cake
 - write great stories
 - mix paint
 - do long division
- Why does it help this student to see the works of other artists?
 - to learn to draw
 - mix paint
 - to think about what she wants to paint
 - none of these
- Where will the art exhibit be?
 - at the library
 - at one of the banks
 - at the school
 - at one of the churches
- What does this student hope will happen with her paintings?
 - one of them will be sold
 - one of them will be chosen for the exhibit
 - one of them will be of her younger sister
 - one of them will be lost

A short scene to act out

Below you will find the dialogue you are going to act out, in pairs. In the larger grid, you will find the adverbs. Adverbs describe a verb, so they tell you how something is done. There are also settings and roles to consider. Ham it up and enjoy!

THE DIALOGUE

A. Hello. How are you?
 B. I'm fine, thanks. How are you?
 A. Fine. Have you got the papers?
 B. Yes. I have. Do you want them?
 A. Of course. Let's see them.
 B. Here they are.
 A. Great. I hope they are complete.
 B. Don't worry. Everything is there.

Possible Settings

- In an office
- In a factory (on a noisy factory floor)
- In a staff room
- Two cars parked alongside each other
- In a busy corridor

Possible roles:

- Boss and employee
- Teacher and pupil
- Spies!
- Colleagues
- Friends

shyly	secretively, furtively	hurriedly	noisily	carelessly
bossily	Angrily, furiously	impatiently	hopelessly, dejectedly	slowly
romantically	fearfully	happily	sadly	excitedly
Haltingly	witheringly, coldly and with contempt!	dreamily	quietly	sarcastically

Evaluation:

- Which adverbs were the easiest to act out? Which ones were the hardest?
- Which adverbs were difficult to distinguish from each other? (They seemed pretty much the same...)
- Did the roles make any difference?
- Did the setting make any difference?

Why Reading Comprehension Is Important Reading comprehension, or the ability to understand the things you read, is a vital component of any ESL curriculum. Join our mailing list to receive a free ESL teaching resource every week. Click to Join! Students learning a second language may be able to easily and accurately pronounce the text they see on a page without actually understanding what it says, so it's important to test them to make sure they're actually comprehending the things they're reading. It's also important to give your students strategies for reading to help them more easily understand stories and other texts. Printable ESL Reading Comprehension Worksheets You can download and print all of the following worksheets for free. It should go without saying but it can be easy to forget this sometimes. Don't be afraid to step back a level if your student is really having a rough time. The first is to start reading and then look up each word that you do not know in a dictionary. This helps them recognize what to look for when they're reading and figure out what's happening in a passage without understanding every single word. Hand out Worksheets as Homework Because reading is a solitary activity, reading comprehension worksheets are a great homework assignment for students. Any reading practice will be beneficial. However, also read about a wide range of topics as this will mean you improve your vocabulary more. Read often, if possible everyday. Make lists of new words and spend time learning all this new vocabulary. Once the first pass is done, they can read it in their head if it helps aid their comprehension. Pick the Right Level! Don't forget to choose a suitable worksheet for your student's level. This will help build their language ability. However, if they are really not getting a particular section, don't be afraid to step in and help them out. Both methods are good and will help you become better at understanding English during reading exercises or activities. Once you can read, you can read more and learn more, and therefore continue to learn more. Once you can read you can see how English is written, see the structure and see the grammar that is used, so by learning to read you will open up many areas of English to learn in the future. Sometimes, understanding just one important keyword in a sentence is enough to unlock the context of an entire paragraph.Browse our full archive of printable ESL worksheets. Reading Comprehension Tips As with learning anything, the best way to get better is to practice. Chose reading passages that are just right. The first time they read the passage, have them read it out loud.Make a note of any words where the pronunciation needs improving and then correct them afterwards. These are the skills that will let you understand information in leaflets, books or any written form. At the same time, if they are going through these like a knife through butter then it's time to turn up the difficulty level!Help Them OutTry to get your students to work things out from context as much as possible. When doing this you should write the words down in a list with a definition so that you can revise them and make sure you remember them. The other way is to learn vocabulary from vocabulary lists or flashcards. There are two ways to do this. Then when you see the word in a reading comprehension you will know it already. This forces them to pay attention to the content of what they're reading because they know questions are coming.You can also practice active reading with your students, showing them how to pay attention to sentence structures and keywords. Reading Comprehension Topics The following topics are all related to a specific area and are divided into several difficulty levels. What is Needed for ESL Reading Comprehension To become successful at ESL reading comprehension you need to practice. This means that if it is too easy you will not be learning anything new and if it is too hard you will find it difficult and also not learn as well as you could. Use them in your lessons or assign them as homework to your students.Worksheets for Beginner/Elementary (A1-A2)Worksheets for Intermediate/Intermediate-Advanced (B1-B2)How to Teach Reading Comprehension (5 Tips)Incorporate Reading Comprehension Exercises in Your ESL ClassesYou can teach reading comprehension in your ESL class by giving students exercises to complete directly after they read a passage.
